

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

MARCUS MORRISON,

Petitioner,

Case No. C22-5663-RAJ-MLP

V.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

JAMES KEY,

Respondent.

This is a 28 U.S.C. § 2254 habeas action. Petitioner filed a proposed habeas petition on November 7, 2022, along with an application to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”). (Dkt. # 1.)
The Clerk’s office notified Petitioner of a deficiency in his IFP application, Petitioner amended and received an extension of time to correct the deficiency. (Dkt. ## 2-5.) On October 22, Petitioner refiled his IFP application, a PLRA IFP Status Report issued by the correctional facility, and a letter explaining that the correctional facility represented to him that the documents would suffice. (Dkt. # 6.) After careful consideration of the documents Petitioner has filed, the Court concludes they provide sufficient information with which to determine his IFP application.

1 Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1), the Court may authorize the commencement of an
2 action, without the prepayment of fees, where the petitioner establishes that he is unable to pay
3 such fees. The filing fee for a civil lawsuit filed under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 is $5.00.¹ 28 U.S.C.
4 § 1914(a); see also LCR 100(d).

5 It appears from Petitioner's application that he has sufficient financial resources to pay
6 the $5.00 filing fee required in § 2254 habeas actions. Specifically, Petitioner's application
7 reveals that he has $265.93 in savings, $56.73 in average monthly receipts, and an average
8 spendable balance of $11.26. (See dkt. # 6 at 3, 8.) While Petitioner's funds may not be great, it
9 is not unreasonable to expect Petitioner to pay the $5.00 filing fee required to proceed with this
10 action given the fact that his basic needs are provided for while he is detained. Petitioner's
11 application therefore demonstrates he has sufficient funds to pay the $5.00 filing fee required in a 12 federal habeas action.

13 Accordingly, Petitioner is ORDERED to pay the filing fee of $5.00, or show cause why 14 he cannot afford it, by November 21, 2022. If Petitioner fails to do so, this Court may 15 recommend that the case be dismissed.

16 The Clerk is directed to send copies of this order to Petitioner and to the Honorable 17 Richard A. Jones.

18 Dated this 20th day of October, 2022.
